WEDDING OUTFIT OF SPANISH QUEEN

Bridal Trousseau of Robes, Cloaks, Gowns, Etc., Was Made in London.

BUT WEDDING DRESS IN SPAIN

Presents for King Alfonso and His Bride Come From Many Countries.

Madrid, May 31,-Except Princess Ena's wedding dress, all the bridal trousseau of robes, cloaks, evening and tea gowns, petticoats and underlinen, was made in London, where many of the dresses have been on exhibition. Some of the articles of this queenly trousseau are described as follows:

A dainty dress of white mousselinede-sole flowered with miniature roses. A morning gown is of fine spotted lawn over paiest blue, inset with Valenciennes laces. A beautiful princess robe is in spotted lawn, made to wear over many different colored slips. A charming pale blue China silk empire morning robe is fastened in front with blue rosettes and ends. Another morning gown is of white lawn over pale blue, inserted at equal distances with Valenciennes lace. A smart morning gown is composed entirely of English embroidery in a very open work design.

Among the simple day growns are many composed of linen. The bodices in many instances are made after the American blouse style, with touches of red and blue embroidery. One of the many dressing jackets is made of the palest blue and white zenana edged with quaint silk embroidery. A handsome day dress is composed of ivory crepe de chine, the bodice arranged with the finest Guipure lace and tucked squares of crepe de chine, the centers of which are delicately embroidered with colored rosebuds and set together with insertions of Valenciennes lace. A simple frock is of the palest pink and white flowered voile, with Valenciennes lace. Another day dress is of pale pink and white satin foulard in a small design. Another beautiful visiting dress is of fine white Valenciennes lace and Ivory colored cloth.

Among the many tea gowns is a beautiful one of palest pink mousseline-de-sole, made in the empire style. Another is a pale yellow empire gown veiled with white linon-de-sole. The large bell sleeves are entirely of frills of large bell sleeves are entirely of frills of lace, and round the short waist are pale yellow ribbons threaded through embroidery. There is a handsome evening coat of pale biscult-colored faced cioth, with a hood composed of Valenciennes lace, dyed to match the cloth. Among the evening gowns is a short-waisted one of pale maise mousseline. Another empire evening gown is of white silk mousseline, flowered all over with tiny clusters of pink roses. The under linen is made of the finest ninon, trimmed with real Valenciennes lace and fine embroidery. The initials lace and fine embroidery. The initials of the royal bride, surmounted by the Spanish crown, are worked on all the

THE WEDDING DRESS.

The wedding dress has attracted great interest in Spain, as it is truly a Spanish product, in fabric and finish, except for the wonderful Brussels lace which has been brought to adorn it. which has been brought to adorn it.

It was a fancy of the king and the queen mother that the wedding dress should be made in Spain, and the Princess Ena graciously fell in with this patriotic sentiment. The dress is patriotic sentiment. The dress is therefore one of the special presents from the king and is a marvel of ele-gance. The silk was manufactured from a special pattern in one of th large Spanish silk establishments. It was made up with all the artistic skill of the court dressmakers. The silk is heavily overlaid with wonderful silver embroidery with soft frills of the fir est Brussels lace, said to have cost $50 The laces were publicly exhibited before being put on the dress, and excited the admiration and astonishment of the aristocratic ladies of fusely used with the silver embroideries and laces, for the corsage, and even in dainty clusters along the train, which is four yards long. According to Span-ish traditions the bride must afterwards present this wedding dress to the Virgin de la Paloma, the popular protect-ress of maternity.

THE WEDDING PRESENTS.

The presents for King Alfonso and his bride are arriving from all quar-ters of the globe, from countries and their rulers, from provinces and cities, and even from school children of Spain who have contributed their miteshow their loyalty to the king. Some of these gifts are as follows:

The queen mother presents the king with her portrait painted by Moreno rbonero. The city of Madrid gives enduring present to the bride, by establishing a workmen's quarter which is baptized in the name of Queen Victoria Eugenia.

MAYOR APPROVED NEW ORDINANCES

Those Amended by the Council With Reference to Street Paving.

READVERTISE

In View of This Action Board of Public Works Met This Morning for Further Consideration.

Mayor Thumpson today approved the amended street paving ordinances. passed by the city council on Monday night and also the resolution by Black authorizing the re-advertising for bids on all of the paving improvements heretofore advertised. The amended ordinances provided for the property owners to pay their tax for the improvements in ten years instead of five as required in the original ordinances. The street paving work effected by the ordinances is First South street from West Temple to Third West; East, Temple from Fourth to Ninth South; State from Fourth to Seventh South; Fourth South from West Temple to Second East; Second South from Third

Second East: Second South from Third to Tenth East.

Bids for all this work will have to be re-advertised before the paving can be commenced and the Black resolution provides for re-advertising the improvements named above. The mayor also approved the Wells resolution instructing the board of public works to discontinue the advertising for bide for uncadamizing Second avenue and for macadamizing Second avenue and C street until the ordinance can be amended so as to allow the 10 year payment on that work also. This amendment will probably be made at the council meeting on next Monday, night and then the advertisement for bids will be commenced over again. In view of the action of the city the Second South street paying so as to allow the 10-year payment, the board of public works met this morning and returned all of the bids received and returned all of the bids received on that work without opening them. Last Monday was the date set for opening bids for that paving, but the board postponed action until today in order to await the action of the city counci on the other paving improvements. As it has been instructed to re-advertise for bids on all the work the board de-cided today not to open the bids received or the Second South they were returned to the bid-

COURT NOTES.

Bertha Woods filed suit in the distriet court today for divorce against James M. Woods on the grounds of desertion and failure to provide. They which plaintiff asks the custody. It is alleged that defendant deserted plain-tiff on Feb. 12, 1900 and ever since has failed to support her.

M. Levy, the junk dealer, was arraigned in the criminal division of the district court today before Judge Armstrong upon the charge of receving stolen property and pleaded not guilty. to the same. It is alleged that Levy received a lot of brass journals from Harry Le Roy and Bert Miller on April 906, which had been stolen from Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line San Pedro and Rio Grande rallroads in this city.

Suit was filed in the district court today by Bonna De Ella Ward against the American Surety company of New York and B. W. Liddell to compel the defendant to pay off a lien upon the property of plaintiff and thus remove the cloud on the title to the same. Liddell was the contractor who built the house for plaintiff and the American Surety company was on his bond. He falled to pay the Taylor-Armstrong Lumber company a bill of $636.75 for lumber used in the contract and that company filed a lien against the place. Plaintiff now asks that the defendant be compelled to pay the amount due for lumber and thus discharge the ilen.

The attorney for the defense, Richardson, contended at length that months would be required to obtain a decision on the appeal in question, and that injustice would be dealt his clients by compelling them to lie in jail all this time. He therefore requested bail for them, advising the putting of bonds at an amount sufficiently high to guaranter their appearance at trial. This was denied by the court on the authority of rulings of the California supreme court in a similar case. The court adjourned amid considerable confusion.

Caldwell, Ida., May 31.-When the cases of Charles H. Moyer, William D. Haywood and George A. Pettibone, charged with the murder of former Gov, Frank Steunenberg, came up in the district court today counsel for the prosecution, acting upon the suggestion made on Tuesday by Presiding Judge Frank Smith, filed a formal motion for a continuance on the ground that the habeas corpus proceedings instituted in the federal courts in behalf of the defendants are still pending and serve as a bar to further proceedings in the state courts until a decision shall have been rendered by the federal supreme court. Judge Smith granted the motion and exceptions were entered by the defense and allowed.

An agreement was finally reached a to the duration of the continuance, attorneys for both sides stipulating that the order of court should provide for a stay of proceedings until the supreme court shall finally pass on the questions before it relating to these defendants, the defendants at the same time excepting to any order of any nature.

NO ARRAIGNMENT IN BROWN CASE

His Attorneys Filed Motion to Quash the Warrants.

Motion Based on the Grounds That Court is Without Jurisdiction In the Matter.

Arthur Brown, the young man arrested several days ago, charged with forgery, was not arraigned before Judge Whitaker of the city court today as contemplated. Another motion to quash the warrant of arrest in the case was filed by Attorneys Kinney & Wilwho represent the accused, and Judge Whitaker set Monday morning at 10 o'clock as the time for hearing the arguments on the motion. There are two charges of forgery and uttering a forged instrument against Brown and the same motion was filed in each

The motion to quash the warrants is based on the grounds that the court was without jurisdiction in the case because the statutes had not been complied with in regard to instituting the proceedings; that the complainant, J. B. Burbidge, nor any other witnesses were not examined under oath or by deposition or otherwise before the magnitude relative to their knowledge of the offense charged; that there was no evidence before the magistrate upon which a warrant of arrest could be issued; that the county attorney did not examine into the charge against the defendant as required by law; that the proceedings in the case are contrary to the Constitution of the United States in that it deprives a person of liberty without due process of law: that it is also contrary to the Consti-tution of Utah for the same reason.

Accompanying the motion were the affidavits of C. J. Brown and A. Swenson, both of whom swear that they were present in the room when Capt. Burbidge swere to the complaints and that Burbidge was not examined by the magistrate relative to his knowledge of the offense charged, and that he did not even read the complaints be-he did not even read the complaints be-fore he swore to them.

At the conclusion of the reading of the motion and affidavits this morning Attorney Kinney asked that the argu-ments go over until Monday, and bis request was granted, that date being agreeable to Assistant County Attorney Hanson.
